The use of the Cookies

Type of Cookies We Use

Cookies can be classified as either "persistent" or "session" cookies. We use both types for the purposes described below:

Type of Cookies	Description	Purpose
Necessary	Essential cookies required for the basic functioning of the website, such as enabling security features, navigation, and managing user consent preferences. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.	Ensure the proper functioning of the website, enable secure login where applicable, and record the user's cookie consent preferences.
Functional	Cookies that enable additional functionalities on the website, such as sharing content on social media platforms, collecting feedback, or integrating with third-party services.	Improve the user experience by enabling additional features and external integrations that facilitate interaction with the website.
Analytics	Cookies used to understand how visitors interact with the website, collecting information such as the number of visitors, pages visited, time spent on the site, and traffic sources.	Support statistical analysis of website usage, enabling continuous improvements to content, navigation, and overall site structure.
Performance	Cookies that help measure and analyze the website's performance indicators and its overall functionality.	Monitor and improve the website's performance, ensuring a more efficient browsing experience for users.

Advertisement	Cookies used to display more relevant advertisements to visitors based on previously visited pages, and to help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns.	Personalize advertisements and evaluate the performance of marketing and advertising campaigns.
Uncategorized	Cookies from third-party services integrated into the website.	Support website security and protection mechanisms, including fraud prevention, mitigation of cross-site requests, and protection against malicious activities.

Cookie Retention Period

Cookies will remain on your device for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes mentioned above, in compliance with best data protection practices. Persistent cookies remain on your device even after you go offline, while session cookies are deleted as soon as you close your browser.

We regularly review our retention practices to ensure compliance with applicable regulations and to enhance the user experience.

To ensure that our practices align with personal data protection guidelines as recommended by the ANPD (Brazilian National Data Protection Authority), we suggest visiting the guideline on cookies.

Your Choices Regarding Cookies

If You prefer to avoid the use of Cookies on the Website, first, You must disable the use of Cookies in your browser and then delete the Cookies saved in your browser associated with this website. You may use this option to prevent using Cookies at any time.

If You do not accept Our Cookies, You may experience some inconvenience in using the Website, and some features may not function properly.

If You'd like to delete Cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse Cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser.
